PRESS RELEASE – Chaine Music Live Plans For Dodgy August Weather!

11 August 2008

Press Release

Chaine Music Live is due to take place this Saturday with a free live event at Broadway bandstand noon – 5 pm. However, should weather prevent this from happening the afternoon entertainment will switch to Chekkers Wine Bar at Lover Cross Street, Larne. Gary Andrews of Chaine Music explained;

“The organisation has made this move in view of the dismal summer weather. If we were to have a very wet day, people couldn’t stop to enjoy the music even if we managed to keep the stage dry. We are grateful to Chekkers Wine Bar for offering us the use of their premises should we be forced to abandon Broadway bandstand.

However, the long range weather forecast is giving us a bit of optimism that after another unsettled week, Saturday should be a fine day.”

During the afternoon (noon to 5 pm) at Broadway Bandstand, there will be music from Robin James Hurt and Mick Morris, Island Folk and the Chaine FM Roadshow. Early evening brings another session from Robin James Hurt and Mick Morris, this time in Dan Campbells. Finally the big evening gig is Anti-Ballroom at the Station Bar – 10 pm till late.

Chaine Music report that there is a lot of interest in the event with many visiting their website at www.chainemusic.com for more information.

Chaine Music Live is sponsored by Morgan Young Consultants and Larne Borough Council.
